

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

Slowly but surely, Spring has arrived in Berlin. After an extended business trip to China, Thailand and France, I had almost made my way back home, when I got stuck in London. Unlike in the film "Planes, Trains and Automobiles", my travel plans were foiled not by snow, but by the ash cloud of the volcano in Iceland! After one whole week of delays and a tedious 12 hours train ride back to Berlin I am now happy to be back and to fully dedicate myself to our exciting new projects.

I am looking forward to your visit at www.walterjungerandfriends.com/!

Best regards,

Walter
